A PROGRAM OF EL POMAR FOUNDATION

Activity Book

Julie and Spencer Penrose are important historic figures in Colorado.

They cared about the Colorado Springs community and developed many of our local attractions, inspiring people from all over the world to visit Colorado Springs.

Cheyenne Mountain Zoo, the Cog Railroad up to the top of Pikes Peak, and the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo are a few examples of the legacy they left to the city.

Throughout this activity book you will find coloring pages and activities that reflect the lives and history of the Penroses.

Decorate the Carriage for the Carnival!

Spencer Penrose rode in the Sunflower Carnival's inaugural parade in 1893. To celebrate the city's abundance, local organizations in Colorado Springs paraded down the road with decorated carriages and vehicles. Can you decorate the Bronson Wagon with bright, colorful flowers?

Cheyenne Mountain Zoo Coloring Page

Tessie the elephant arrived in Colorado Springs in April of 1926 and was renowned for her “golf caddy” skills at The Broadmoor hotel.

Spencer had a miniature cog train built to take hotel guests from The Broadmoor to the zoo. It was named the “Zoo Special.”

Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun Spot the Difference!

Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun was built in 1937, just above Cheyenne Mountain Zoo.

The Shrine is the final resting place of Spencer and Julie, who dedicated the tower to famous actor, Will Rogers.

Can you spot the 5 differences between these images?

(nickname for your car)

Spencer had the Broadmoor Special built as his personal race car. It holds the nickname of the Yellow Devil and is bright yellow, which showcases Spencer's affinity for having cars in "canary yellow."

What color and nickname would you give your own race car?
